

Irina and the Lost Book: Book 3 of the Ragnor Trilogy

'I'm no wolf-queen,' Irina thought bitterly. 'I'm barely more than a girl, a stupid girl at that, who got herself helplessly trapped in a Narrowlands cell.'

A terrifying army marches south towards Irina's family and friends. Locked in prison, she is powerless to stop it.

The Book of the Junsong is lost, her mother is under an evil enchantment, and she is separated from her beloved wolves.

Now, Irina must face her ultimate foe: the Venerated Dragon. And she must do it alone, with nothing to help her but a charm on her neck – and the truth.

Can Irina fulfil her destiny and bring the Age of Peace to Ragnor?

Irina and the Lost Book is a captivating new fantasy novel for children aged 8–12.

The Author

Leah Swann is the author of Bearings, a collection of short stories and a novella which was shortlisted for the Dobbie prize. Irina the Wolf Queen, the first book in the Ragnor Trilogy, was published to widespread acclaim and shortlisted for an Aurealis Award. It was followed by Irina and the White Wolf. Leah's stories and poems have appeared in Best Australian Stories, Australian Love Stories, The World To Come, Review of Australian Fiction, Award Winning Australian Writing, page seventeen, Australian Country Style and Reflecting on Melbourne. Leah lives with her family in Melbourne, Australia.

www.leahswann.com

Also Available

Title	Irina and the Lost Book: Book 3 of the Ragnor Trilogy
Author	Leah Swann
Formats	Paperback 198 x 129 mm (portrait)
Size	288 pages / 180 g
Imprint	Xoum Publishing
Category	Children's fantasy
ISBNs	9781922057136 (print) 9781922057099 (digital)
RRPs	A$14.99 (print) A$4.99 (digital)
Previews	For preview copies, please contact Xoum.
Publicity Contact	Rod Morrison Email: rmorrison@xoum.com.au Phone: 61 2 8399 1850

Available: November 2014